

Name: _____

World Cafe Discussion - Prometheus and Pandora (PDF)

1. In paragraph 2, what does envy mean in the sentence? "Gentle Epimetheus observed his brother's activity with amazement and envy. He also wanted to have some part in the creative process, so he pleaded with Prometheus do let him do something for each living creature. RL 7.4	2. What is the primary conflict of the myth of Prometheus? How does this conflict impact the secondary human characters in the story? RL 7.3
3. Why has the author included the first paragraph? How does this paragraph help the reader to comprehend the text? RL 7.5	4. In many books, the stories of Prometheus and Pandora are told separately. Why do you think the authors chose to link them in this version? RL 7.5
5. What is the theme of the Pandora story? What story details did the author use to develop this theme? RL 7.2	6. What message about technology are both of these stories conveying? RL 7.2

